Scenario: Making Applications work on K8s

Context:

Dev team has developed an application which they were running locally so far. To run the application locally they were using docker compose.

You are expected to understand the architecture of application and make it work on k8s.

This is a pilot project. Your work should be written neutral to managed k8s solution

This is a task for a sprint.

Details

Code Base: https://github.com/EdwinVW/pitstop

Input: https://github.com/EdwinVW/pitstop/blob/main/src/docker-compose.yml